Value Added

The Hope Vale SHAPE and Dreams Projects added value to students learning by providing important mentoring and positive conflict resolution workshops for students. Students were supported through problematic behaviours or personal issues and taught how to best deal personally when faced with such circumstances and also where to get help. These sessions were private and confidential and proved an enormous success for many of our students.